

MxSchons Tours

The invite-only travel agency for discerning adventurers

A Personal Welcome from Your Host

Dear Esteemed Travelers,

On behalf of MxSchons Tours — the world's most exclusive invite-only travel agency (membership: 5 people, waiting list: also 5 people) — I am absolutely thrilled to present to you this meticulously crafted journey to Hangzhou!

We have combined the best of the best to ensure you have an absolutely legendary experience. From soaring over West Lake in a helicopter (yes, really!) to picking tea leaves like ancient emperors, from watching 700,000 LEDs light up the night sky to getting lost in magical water towns — this trip has it all.

Our team of experts (me, with help from Claude) has spent countless hours researching the finest restaurants, the most photogenic spots, and the perfect balance of adventure and relaxation. We've thought of everything: vegetarian options for certain picky eaters, massage breaks for tired feet, and strategic cafe stops for Chinese study sessions.

This isn't just a trip. This is a MxSchons Tours Experience™.

Pack your bags. Charge your cameras. Prepare your appetites.

Hangzhou awaits!

With excitement and anticipation,

Max

Founder, CEO, and Chief Adventure Officer

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day 1 — Monday, April 13

ARRIVAL

A day of travel and reunion. The family converges on Hangzhou from two directions: Max and Margot fly direct from Frankfurt, while Dion, Alex, and Lynn travel from Singapore. Both groups arrive in the evening for an exciting reunion at the hotel and a late dinner together.

Daytime	Max + Margot: Flight Frankfurt → Hangzhou (direct)
Daytime	Dion + Alex & Lynn: Flight Singapore → Hangzhou
Evening	Both groups arrive Hangzhou Xiaoshan Airport
~8:00 PM	Transfer to Wulin Jingyu Tingyuan Hotel; family reunion!
9:30 PM	Late dinner at 新白鹿 (Xin Bailu) — popular local chain, great intro to Hangzhou flavors

Pre-book separate airport transfers for each group (~280–400 RMB each). Coordinate arrival times for smooth reunion. Xin Bailu has vegetarian options for Max.

Day 2 — Tuesday, April 14

GENTLE START

A recovery day after the travel. Max gets his first Chinese class in while others relax. The afternoon brings everyone together for the classic West Lake experience and an easy introduction to Hangzhou street food at the night market.

9:00–10:30	Max: Chinese class at cafe. Margot relaxes; Alex & Lynn explore canal.
11:00	Group reunites. West Lake lakeside promenade stroll.
12:30	Lunch at 楼外楼 (Lou Wai Lou) — Hangzhou's most famous restaurant since 1848
14:30	City God Pagoda for panoramic views
17:30	Wulin Night Market — street food intro

Lou Wai Lou: Try the legendary West Lake Vinegar Fish and Dongpo Pork. Tofu dishes available for Max. Cafe: 河下咖啡 (Hexia Coffee) — canal-side, peaceful for study.

Day 3 — Wednesday, April 15

NATURE & TEA

The signature Hangzhou nature day. Morning starts with the beloved Nine Creeks walk through bamboo groves and shallow streams, followed by the highlight: hands-on tea picking at Meijiawu during peak Longjing harvest season. The day culminates with an immersive Han Dynasty dinner theater.

9:00–10:30	Max: Chinese class at Longjing village cafe
11:00–13:00	Nine Creeks Meandering Walk — shaded, scenic streams
13:00	Lunch at 龙井草堂 (Longjing Caotang) — garden restaurant in the tea village
14:30–17:00	Tea Picking at Meijiawu — picking, roasting, tasting (158 RMB/person)
19:00	Dinner at Gongyan Oriental Art — Han Dynasty dinner theater (498 RMB/person)

April is peak Longjing harvest (Yuqian grade). The Meijiawu experience includes drone aerial photos. Longjing Caotang specializes in tea-infused local dishes.

Day 4 — Thursday, April 16

BIG EXPERIENCES

The most spectacular day of the trip. After a relaxed morning, the group takes a helicopter flight over West Lake for breathtaking aerial views.

Evening brings the famous G20 Summit light show viewed from a river cruise — 700,000 LEDs illuminating 35 buildings.

9:00–10:30	Max: Chinese class
11:00–12:30	Group brunch at hotel or nearby cafe
13:30	Depart for Xinlian Heliport (Xiaoshan District)
14:30–16:00	Helicopter Flight — Route D (~25 min): West Lake, pagodas, river
18:00	Early dinner at 知味观 (Zhiweiguan) — famous for dim sum and Hangzhou classics
19:30	Qiantang River Night Cruise — Qianyin boat (168 RMB/person)
20:30	G20 Light Show — 700,000 LEDs on 35 buildings

Helicopter: 2,580 RMB/person. Zhiweiguan (est. 1913): Try xiaolongbao, cat ear noodles, and shrimp-stuffed lotus root. Vegetable dumplings for Max.

Day 5 — Friday, April 17

REST & LOCAL FLAVORS

A well-deserved rest day after the intensive helicopter and cruise day. Sleep in, enjoy a traditional breakfast, then indulge in affordable professional massages. Evening brings a special Hangzhou dining experience.

Morning	Sleep in, relax at hotel
11:00	Late brunch at 游埠豆浆 — savory soy milk, fried dough, scallion pancakes
Afternoon	Group Massage — Yaoshi Blind Massage (~50–100 RMB/person)
Evening	Dinner at 外婆家 (Grandma's Home) — beloved local chain, excellent value

Grandma's Home: Hugely popular for authentic home-style Hangzhou cooking. Try tea-smoked duck, braised pork belly, and stir-fried greens. Always has vegetable dishes. Expect a short wait — worth it.

Day 6 — Saturday, April 18

MORNING MARKET & LOCAL GEMS

An early start for the authentic morning market experience at Dama Long — 240 meters of old Hangzhou charm that disappears by noon. The rest of the day is free for revisiting favorite discoveries or exploring new corners of the city.

7:00	Morning Market — Dama Long (大马弄) — 240m of authentic local life
9:00–10:30	Max: Chinese class at cafe
11:00	Leisurely walk around Grand Canal scenic area
12:30	Lunch at discovered favorite or hotel restaurant
Afternoon	Flexible: Shopping, cafe hopping, or see Optional Activities
19:00	Farewell Hangzhou dinner at 朴竹 Pu Zhu (Michelin Green Star) or favorite spot

Dama Long opens ~6:30 AM, busiest 7–9 AM. Try 葱包桧 at 胡阿姨葱包桧. Pu Zhu: Hangzhou's first Michelin Green Star — elegant vegetarian fine dining if Max wants a special meal.

Day 7 — Sunday, April 19

WUZHEN & SHANGHAI

A scenic travel day that doubles as an experience. The journey to Shanghai passes through the magical water town of Wuzhen — perfectly positioned to catch the famous illuminated night scene before continuing to Shanghai for the final leg of the China adventure.

9:00	Check out of Wulin Jingyu Tingyuan Hotel; luggage in car
9:30	Depart Hangzhou for Wuzhen (private car, ~1.5 hours)
11:00	Arrive Wuzhen; store luggage at visitor center (free)
11:30	Lunch in Wuzhen — local noodles, rice cakes
13:00–18:00	Explore Xizha (West Gate) — canals, bridges, traditional architecture
18:00	Lights come on at dusk — Wuzhen's legendary illuminated scene
20:00	Depart Wuzhen for Shanghai (~1.5 hours)
21:30	Arrive Shanghai; check into hotel; light supper nearby

Wuzhen entry: 150 RMB. Vegan options limited — try 定胜糕 (rice cake + red bean) and 青团 (green rice cakes). Max should bring backup snacks.

Day 8 — Monday, April 20

SHANGHAI DAY 1

A full day exploring China's most cosmopolitan city. The morning wanders through the tree-lined boulevards and Art Deco architecture of the French Concession. Evening brings the magical experience of The Bund at sunset followed by a Huangpu River cruise.

9:00	Leisurely breakfast at hotel
10:00–13:00	French Concession walk: Wukang Road → Fuxing Park → Tianzifang
13:00	Lunch at Lost Heaven — stunning Yunnan cuisine in a beautiful heritage building
15:00–17:00	Shanghai Museum (free, air-conditioned) or continued exploration
17:30	The Bund promenade — sunset views, Pudong skyline
19:00	Huangpu River Night Cruise (~135 RMB, 45 min)
21:00	Dinner at 上海老饭店 (Shanghai Lao Fandian) — classic Shanghai cuisine since 1875

Lost Heaven: Beautiful setting, excellent mushroom and vegetable dishes for Max. Shanghai Lao Fandian: Try hongshao rou (red-braised pork), drunken chicken, and crab dishes in season.

Day 9 — Tuesday, April 21

SHANGHAI DAY 2

The final full day of the China adventure. Morning brings the historic Yu Garden at opening time before the crowds. The afternoon is flexible for last-minute shopping, exploring, or simply savoring the final hours in China.

8:30	Early start — head to Yu Garden area
9:00	Yu Garden (豫园) — arrive at opening for quietest experience (40 RMB)
10:30	Brunch at 南翔馒头店 — legendary xiaolongbao since 1900
12:00	Explore Yu Garden Bazaar — traditional shops, souvenirs
Afternoon	Flexible: Nanjing Road shopping, more French Concession, or rest
18:00	Final dinner at 功德林 (Godly Vegetarian) — Shanghai's oldest vegetarian since 1922
Evening	Pack, early night before morning flight

Nanxiang: The original xiaolongbao restaurant — expect queues but worth it. Godly Vegetarian: A fitting final meal with both history and excellent food everyone can enjoy. Half-price Yu Garden entry for seniors 60+.

Day 10 — Wednesday, April 22

FAREWELL & DEPARTURE

The final morning in China. After breakfast together, the family shares a bittersweet farewell at Pudong Airport before going separate ways: Dion,

Alex, and Lynn head back to Singapore, while Max and Margot begin their long journey back to Frankfurt.

6:30 AM	Wake up, final packing
7:30 AM	Depart hotel for Pudong International Airport
9:00 AM	Family farewell at airport
Morning	Dion + Alex & Lynn: Flight Shanghai → Singapore
Morning	Max + Margot: Flight Shanghai → Frankfurt
Afternoon	Dion + Alex & Lynn arrive Singapore
Next Day	Max + Margot arrive Frankfurt

Allow 2+ hours at Pudong Airport for international departure. Hotel near Pudong recommended for easiest morning.
